ACADEMY GRADUATES RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

Right Rev. William T. Russell Delivers Address to St. Patrick's Class.

Graduates and pupils of St. Patrick's Academy formed a beautiful stage picture yesterday afternoon, grouped upon the stage in the new Carroll Hall, adjoining the parish house of St. Patrick's Church, at the ninety-second annual commencement exercises, which were attended by such a crowd of parents and friends that the large auditorium was packed. Right Rev. William T. Russell delivered the address.

A pleasing and novel feature of the exercises proved to be an "arch of success," which was built up by the graduates, who placed upon it bouquets of flowers, typifying "industry," "honor," etc., until a completed arch of true character was completed. The exercises were opened with a chorus by the seniors. Edward Joseph Haley gave an essay, "Responsibility," and the seniors sang Nevin's "Mighty Lak a Rose."

Diplomas and Testimonials.

Diplomas in the commercial department were awarded to Essie Lee Davis, Marion Loretta Donnelly, Catherine Harriet Hawkshaw, Helen Marie Hess, Rose Catherine Howard, Mary Michael O'Brien, Martha Teresa Russell, Mary Madeline Slattery, Edith Eugene Vincent, Sophie Alphonza Wilson, Alice Cecilia Wolfe, Edward Joseph Haley, Henry Joseph McNeerney, John Hastings Shannon and Martin Augustus Schubert.

Testimonials for having completed their eighth grade were awarded to Robert Fenton, Paul Fuhrman, Dennis Reidy, Russell Swann, Malcolm Turton, Leo Walsh, Mary Keene, Mary Louise Gallenue, Edna Murphy, Irene Smith, Lillian Taylor, Elizabeth Schweigert, Natilda Chase, Mary Hudson, Anna Powrie, Bessie McGee, Loretta Lyons, Catherine Hannon and Annette Melton.

Prizes Awarded.

The Mgr. Russell prizes for the best essay on the subject assigned by the Maryland day committee were awarded to Robert Fenton and Lillian Taylor. The Stafford prizes for general excellence were awarded to Henry McNeerney, and to Helen Hess and Alice Wolfe.

A prize to the St. Patrick's delegates to the Catholic school spelling contest was given by Mgr. Russell to Catherine Kreig and Anna Powrie.

A prize for the best essay on some phase of Irish history was awarded to Malcolm Turton.

Special prizes for music presented by Miss Kathryn Lackey were awarded to Gertrude Borzi, Dorothy Cain, Mary McFarren and Winifred Lackey.

D. C. DELEGATION TO URGES LIBERAL PLANK ON CAPITAL

requires that we shall have competent and able American seamen.

"We favor government ownership of telegraphs and telephones.

"We favor the absolute suffrage of women coequal with men."

Higher Standards Urged.

The copy opens with a plea for the promotion of the betterment of the laboring classes. Preparedness is also brought into play in the opening paragraph, when it is closed with the sentence:

"Standards of life and work, daily hours of toil and wages have a direct relation to economic progress and development, as well as to preparedness for national defense."

A pledge of the party to maintain the federal law enacted by Congress securing to the workers the legal right of voluntary association for mutual protection and welfare, protecting their rights against unwarrantable issuance of writs of injunction and guaranteeing the right of trial by jury in alleged contempt cases committed outside the presence of courts, is also in the copy.

That the federation believed that the influx of European laborers at the close of the war will be greater than ever before, and that by a national pledging that the immigration and contract labor laws be thoroughly enforced and so extended as to exclude from entrance to these United States all persons who cannot read some language."

Other Labor Proposals.

The plank, if adopted, would contain sections demanding enforcement of all federal eight-hour laws and the extension to all departments of the government, the enactment and rigid enforcement of a federal child labor law, the enactment of a comprehensive and generous workmen's compensation act, and strict investigation of "misleading term," "scientific management." And that all adaptations of speeding up systems be forbidden in all government work, where the physical and mental work of the workers suffer.

Other provisions are: Enactment of a law bestowing the citizenship upon the people of Porto Rico; minimum wage for civil service employees; creation of a tribunal to which civil service employees may appeal for redress of grievance; enactment of equitable retirement law for superannuated and disabled employees of civil service; and that acceptance of employment in the civil service must not impair the employees' right of movement.

Robert E. Mattingly, chairman of the delegation, will be placed on the credentials committee. Other delegates who have arrived so far include E. Southard Parker, Walter J. Costello, Charles W. Hart, George H. Emmons and Tucker H. Stande and Commissioner Brownlow.

CUBANS SMUGGLE OPIUM.

Federal Authorities in Northern Cities Told to Look Out for Trio.

SAVANNAH, Ga., June 14.—Federal officers in cities north of here have been notified by United States Commissioner J. C. Morecock to watch for three Cubans, said to be carrying in their baggage nearly $3,000 worth of opium. The drug was said to have been smuggled into this country through Key West, but notification from Florida reached here too late to prevent a search of the afternoon Atlantic Coast Line railroad northbound train on which the men were said to be passengers.

AMERICANS ARE GUARDED.

President Wilson Reports to Senate on Conditions in Ireland.

President Wilson sent to the Senate yesterday a report of Secretary Lansing saying American citizens and their property in Ireland were being protected under international law, that the Irish disturbances were ceasing and that it was hoped there would be few, if any, further arrests and detentions of Americans.

The report was in response to a Senate resolution passed soon after the Dublin uprising, which asked what steps had been taken to protect Americans there.

TURKS CLAIM FURTHER SUCCESSES IN CAUCASUS

Annihilation of a Force of 12,000 Turkish Cavalrymen Is Announced.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 14.—The offensive movement recently undertaken in the Caucasus by Turkish troops has won further successes, according to an announcement made by the war office.

"The fighting on the right and left wings in the Caucasus we captured a number of prisoners and a great quantity of field telephones and trench implements."

"The battle referred to in yesterday's announcement, which resulted in the annihilation of a Russian cavalry force of 12,000 men occurred near the river south of Tchemleuk and east of the village of Amichen."

"Five hostile aeroplanes dropped about fifty bombs on Smyrna yesterday. Some men and children were killed and houses were destroyed."

FRENCH COMMENT ON HUGHES.

Point Out War Has Little Influence on American Politics.

PARIS, June 14.—Biographies of Charles E. Hughes, the republican presidential candidate, are printed by the French press, but comment upon the nomination was not extensive. "The decision of the Chicago convention," says the Temps, "teaches one thing we should not forget, namely, that the European war exercises much less influence on the political affairs of America than we had supposed. Questions essentially American guided the convention and considerations of a general character were only incidental."

The Temps adds that Mr. Hughes had maintained reserve owing to the judicial position he occupied, favoring neither one side nor the other in the European conflict, so that he will be able scrupulously to follow the principles enunciated by his party.

The Figaro points out that the candidate is well acquainted with Europe, coming here each year and usually visiting Switzerland, where he takes an especial interest in mountain climbing. His favorite authors, adds the newspaper, are French, notably Balzac and Dumas the elder.
